The Credit Union is here for Dairy Employees and your family members!

The credit union prides itself on being a closed membership financial institution here to help you and your family members. We are happy to assist you with any financial questions or needs you may have.

We have a variety of accounts from a standard savings for yourself, kids, or grandkids. To checking accounts for your every day transactions. If your looking to save for Christmas we offer Christmas accounts as well where you can save all year and then we will send your money in a check on November 1st each year.

If you are looking for a loan please check with the credit union! The credit union board is continually looking at new ways to help our members while doing our best to keep our rates as competitive as possible.

Keep a look out within the next year we hope to add a lot more user friendly electronic ways to help our membership with loans and accounts. If you are interested in opening a new account or loan or have questions on any of our loan/account products please contact Emily or Lisa at 402-342-8510 or stop at the credit union.

Santa Letters for Children's Miracle Network
